Service Methodology	Vodafone will run an email-based phishing campaign targeting a group of the Customer's employees (the "Targeted Employees") (the "Phishing Campaign"). Vodafone will perform the Service in accordance with the 4 phases detailed below: Some key features of the Phishing Campaign, are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Phishing emails sent appear to have come from non-existing domains or non-current corporate email addresses;• Customer will have the opportunity to customize campaign based on its needs and in line with its security maturity level; Phase 1 - Planning During the planning phase of the Service, the required information provided by the Customer in the Customer Phishing Awareness Request Form shall be reviewed by Vodafone. Vodafone and Customer shall jointly create a phishing email template (the "Email Template") and a malicious landing page (the "Landing Page"). A domain name shall be registered by Vodafone to align with the Email Template and Landing Page. The Email Template can be written in any one of the following languages: English, Italian, Spanish, French, Portuguese, Greek or German. In order to guarantee an adequate level of security, valid TLS certificates installed on the Landing Page will be used to guarantee the total confidentiality of the data transmitted. Vodafone and the Customer shall agree a timing schedule for the Email Templates to be sent by Vodafone (the "Schedule"). Phase 2 - Testing The testing phase is aimed to verify the configurations of the Customer's e-mail system. The purpose of this activity is for Vodafone to validate the configurations implemented on the Phishing Platform and send a test email, based on the Email Template, to one of the Targeted Employees, to ensure it is received prior to continuing to Phase 3. Phase 3 - Execution After Vodafone has configured the Phishing Attack on the Phishing Platform, the Template Emails are sent by Vodafone in accordance with the Schedule. During the execution phase, the activity is monitored in order to verify the progress of the Service. Personal Data accidentally entered by the Targeted Employees will not be stored past the engagement or processed by Vodafone. Depending on the type of Edition selected by Customer, Vodafone shall send the Template Emails to a maximum of 1000 Targeted Employees at a time, provided that all required Template Emails are sent within a period of 10 Business Days. Where Customer has selected the Large Edition, the Targeted Employees shall be split into smaller groups. Phase 3 must be completed within 10 Business Days. Phase 4 - Reporting Once the Template Emails have been sent to the Targeted Employees, Vodafone shall collect and analyse statistics and activity data and shall produce the Phishing Awareness Report. The analysis of the results within the Phishing Awareness Report shall highlight the level of awareness of the Targeted Employees, offering useful information for evaluation of security maturity level and further analysis to undertake improvement actions in order to protect the Customer against a possible future email phishing attack. The Phishing Awareness Report shall be aggregated and will not contain any personal information or details of the Targeted Employees.

Service Assumptions & Customer Dependencies	In addition to any other responsibilities or assumptions described in this Agreement, the Customer Dependencies are as follows and the Customer recognises that if it fails to comply with the following dependencies, Vodafone is relieved from performing or delivering the Service and may choose to suspend or terminate this Agreement: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Customer shall perform and complete the responsibilities and assumptions set out in the Customer Prerequisites section prior to the Service Commencement Date. 2. Customer is solely responsible for implementing a process to ensure that if Customer's IT Team detects Vodafone's activities under the Service, such detection will be escalated to Customer's senior management, or such other knowledgeable Customer personnel, who can intervene prior to such activity being reported outside of Customer's organisation (e.g. to law enforcement) or, if such activity is reported outside of Customer's organisation, Customer will promptly clarify that Vodafone was acting with Customer's full knowledge and consent. 3. Decisions to be made by the Customer must be made promptly and without delay. 4. Customer shall be responsible for delivering all communications internal to Customer regarding the Service, including communications intended to inform Customer employees and personnel about the Service, any impact it may have on Customer employees and personnel, and any training necessary to impacted Customer employees and personnel. 5. Customer must be aware of and acknowledge the risks associated with the Service and must have taken the necessary pre-testing steps (e.g. data backup, internal communications etc.) to help minimize these risks. 6. Customer shall provide an accurate and complete list of email addresses together with names and department/roles of the Targeted Employees in a timely manner, and such other information as may be reasonably required and notified by Vodafone, and shall immediately notify Vodafone if it learns that any information previously provided to Vodafone is materially inaccurate or incomplete. 7. Customer will consent to and authorize Vodafone to access the Customer Property and perform the Service as described in this Agreement. 8. Customer is solely responsible for obtaining any such consents (including copyright for websites to be cloned as part of the Service), permissions or licenses or providing such notices (including from third-parties and Customer employees) necessary for Vodafone to perform its obligations under this Agreement. 9. Any other Customer responsibility that the parties mutually agree upon in writing in the Customer Phishing Awareness Request Form. 10. Customer will provide to Vodafone a sample structure of its typical company email communications and network access to Customer's company portal (such that Vodafone can obtain a screenshot to replicate the company portal) or any other landing page suitable for phishing email attacks.
General Assumptions & Dependencies	The general assumptions & dependencies applicable for this Service are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All work is carried out on a fixed fee basis. • There will be no changes to the scope of the Service, as set out in this Agreement. • The Service is not warranted to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • detect or identify all security or network threats to, or vulnerabilities of Customer's networks or other facilities, assets, or operations; • prevent intrusions into or any damage to Customer's networks or other facilities, assets, or operations;

- return control of a Customer or third party system where unauthorized access or control has occurred; or
- meet or help Customer meet any Applicable Law, industry standard or any other requirements including the Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard. It is Customer's sole responsibility to provide appropriate and adequate security for its company, its assets, systems and employees.
- Customer must promptly notify Vodafone of any changes to the information provided by Customer in the Customer Phishing Awareness Request Form.
- Vodafone may provide reasonable recommendations, advice or instructions on a particular course of action in the course of performing or as a result of the Service or in the Deliverables to be provided to Customer and if Customer chooses not to follow such reasonable recommendations, advice or instructions, Customer acknowledges that Vodafone shall not be responsible for any losses or claims made by the Customer that arise from Customer's failure to follow such recommendations, advice or instructions.
- While Vodafone will use reasonable care to carry out the Service in line with Good Industry Practice and in a manner designed to mitigate and reduce the risk of damage to Customer Property, Customer acknowledges that there is inherent risk in the provision of the security Service in accordance with this Agreement which may lead to operational degradation, performance impact, breach of Customer policies or industry standards, or otherwise impair Customer Property (each a "Customer Damage" and together the "Customer Damages") and, Vodafone will not be liable to the Customer or its respective employees or any third parties of the Customer for Customer Damages arising from the foregoing. To the extent possible, prior to commencing any provisioning of the Service, Vodafone shall identify and inform the Customer of any Customer Damage associated with the Service.
- Customer agrees that Vodafone has the right to anonymise and aggregate Customer Data that will not in any way reveal the Customer Data as being attributable to the Customer with other data and leverage anonymous learnings and insights regarding use of the Service (the anonymised data, "Vodafone Insights Data"), and that Vodafone owns Vodafone Insights Data and may use Vodafone Insights Data during and after the term of this Agreement solely to develop, provide, and improve Vodafone products and services.
- Customer agrees that Vodafone is not liable to Customer for Customer Damages provided that Vodafone will use reasonable care to carry out the Service in line with Good Industry Practice and in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
- The Customer agrees that, to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, it shall not bring any claim against Vodafone or any Group Company, whether in tort or otherwise, in connection with the Service or otherwise in relation to the subject matter of this Agreement.
- Customer acknowledges that, in providing the Service, Vodafone will access Customer Systems and data. Customer agrees that, in advance of the Agreement Start Date, it shall provide and maintain all necessary consents, permissions, notices and authorisations as that are necessary for Vodafone to perform the Service, including any of the foregoing from employees or third parties; valid consents from or notices to applicable data subjects; and authorisations from regulatory authorities, employee representative bodies or other applicable third parties ("Customer Consent") in a timely manner as necessary for Vodafone to access and use such System and data to perform the Service under this Agreement, and/or to use any third-party System(s) or data that Vodafone may use or require access to in performing the Service. For purposes of this Clause, "System" means, as applicable, Customer's or a third party's computer environment, network, equipment, software and related services.
- Vodafone shall perform the Service in line with the scope of the Service as set out in this Agreement, in accordance with Good Industry Practice, and in reliance on, and in line with, the Customer Consent.
- Customer agrees to indemnify Vodafone on an unlimited basis to the extent the Customer fails to provide and maintain the Customer Consents.

Vodafone is not responsible for remedying any security issues, vulnerabilities or other problems discovered in the course of performing or as a result of the Service (where such Service is provided in accordance with the terms of this Agreement).
