

Vodafone UK Opens Pre-Order for Sony Ericsson Xperia Play & Arc

Vodafone UK customers can now pre-order the Sony Ericsson Xperia Play and Arc Android smartphones ahead of their launch on 1 April.

Xperia Play will be free on £35, 24 month price plans, including 900 minutes, unlimited texts and 750MB of mobile data, as well as up to 25MB of data roaming in selected European countries when ordered online.

The first 1,000 people to pre-order the device through the Vodafone website will also receive a fantastic free Sony Ericsson DK300 multimedia docking station.

The Xperia Arc will be free on £30, 24 month price plans, including 600 minutes, unlimited texts and 500MB of mobile data.

The ultra-slim Arc measures just 8.7mm at its thinnest point and still manages to pack in a whole host of amazing features, including HD viewing.

Both the Arc and Play run on Gingerbread (Android 2.3).

Customers who pre-order either device in March will also receive free Vodafone-to-Vodafone calls for the life of the contract.
